

Ladybugs and Butterflies

By Kage

I am going to talk to you about butterflies and ladybugs and how they are the same and different.

They both have legs. They both can fly. They both have wings. They are both insects.

Butterflies eat nectar and leaves. Butterflies are colorful.

Ladybugs eat aphids. Ladybugs are not colorful.

What do you know about butterflies and ladybugs?

