

Rubric*Objectives for Extension Project for *Number the StarsAdapted from Literature Circles Resource Guide, Hill et al.

	The learner will demonstrate understanding and appreciation for the book.	The learner will plan and complete the project in an organized and timely manner.	The learner will create a visually appealing project that draws audience to the book.	The learner will create a project that includes not only general ideas but also specific details from the book
4 exceeds expectations (94-100)	Project clearly communicates understanding of the book.	Project is well-organized and completed on time.	Project is visually creative and artistic.	Project shows thorough attention to details.
3 meets expectations (86-93)	Project adequately communicates understanding of the book.	Project is generally organized and completed on time.	Project is visually appealing.	Project shows strong attention to details.
2 approaches expectations (78-85)	Project partially communicates understanding of the book.	Project lacks organization and/or is not completed on time. (1 day late.)	Project has some visual appeal but may be difficult to read.	Project shows slight attention to details.
1 does not meet expectations (70-77)	Project inadequately communicates understanding of the book.	No organization is evident and/or project is more than 1 day late.	Project lacks visual appeal.	Project shows little attention to details.
0 no attempt to meet expectations	Project does not communicate understanding of the book.	Student has to be repeatedly reminded to complete project.	Project is messy or illegible.	Project is inaccurate in content details.
COMMENTS
GRADE

OVERALL GRADE FOR PROJECT: _____